

Uranium Prospecting in Hicks' Dome Area

SEARCH FOR URANIUM ORES, begun more than a year ago on Hicks' Dome in northern Hardin county, has started again on the W. G. Reynolds lease on the Roy Stacey property. The above photo shows Niles Minner Jr., of the Joy Manufacturing Co., core drilling for rock samples at the point where extensive trenching operations have preceded. Minner and D. H. Stalion, both of Sheridan, Ky., are now making their second core-drilling operation at the site. Their first exploration went 211 feet into the earth. Minner is shown examining rock samples taken yesterday during the second operation between 186 and 190 feet. They are drilling at a 50 degree angle and found rock at 90 feet.

MINNER AND STALION moved in July 2 and have been working day-shifts only since that time, but before they arrived there were two big trenching operations for ore samples. One of them is shown above is about 35 or 40 feet deep and 20 feet wide, running back about 150 yards. Size of the trench can be determined by looking at Bill Melton at the left. Most of the material dug out, it was stated, is chert, an impure flintlike rock, dark red in color. Mr. Reynolds, the lease holder, is of the Reynolds Metal Co. of Louisville, Ky., and his representative in charge of the Hardin county operation is B. L. Baxter of Louisville. Mr. Baxter is slated to be at the scene of the operation this week-end. (Daily Register Staff Photos)

Announce Plans For Annual SEIEC Meeting

Plans are nearly complete for the 17th annual meeting of the Southeastern Illinois Electric Co-op to be held at its headquarters near Eldorado Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 20-21.

Joe Ladley of the SEIEC has announced plans call for a bigger and better meeting, with special programs for the children, something that hasn't been done in the past.

The annual meeting will get underway Monday afternoon with the opening of displays at 5 o'clock. At 6:30 the evening program will start with organ music by Keith Pierce of Carbondale. The program is scheduled to continue until 9:30.

There will be something going on practically all day Tuesday until late in the afternoon.

On the Monday evening program will be a "Job Training and Safety Demonstration" by instructors from REA state headquarters.

Later in the evening the talent show will be staged with prizes for the first three place winners and the champion of the show will represent the SEIEC in the state-wide contest to be held in Springfield Sept. 6.

Also on the evening program will be the Prophets Quartet and novelty acts by Nardini and Nadyne, an act that is travelling throughout the state to perform at various Electric Co-op meetings.

Tuesday morning will be devoted to business of the SEIEC, including the election of four members of the Board of Directors.

Highlight of the Tuesday afternoon program will be the beauty contest. The girl chosen as Queen of the SEIEC will compete in the state beauty contest at Springfield. For the children there will be pony rides throughout the two-day meeting and also on Monday evening there will be a showing of Roy Rogers movies and cartoons.

Approximately 7,500 attended the annual meeting in 1955 and plans are being made to accommodate an even larger crowd this year. The SEIEC has an option on a five-acre tract of land across State Highway 142 from the headquarters building and the field will probably be available as a parking lot.

The Rev. W. A. Weigant, Former Baptist Minister In This Community, Dies

Word was received in Harrisburg Friday of the death of the Rev. W. A. Weigant, former Baptist minister in the Harrisburg community.

The Rev. Weigant, a veteran of the Spanish-American war, died in the veterans hospital at Danville Friday and funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 4 p. m. at the Donelson funeral home in McLeansboro.

The Rev. Weigant had served as pastor of the Baptist churches at Walnut Grove and Dorrisville. He is survived by a son, John, who lives near Peoria and a daughter, Anna Mae, Kentucky. His wife preceded him in death four years ago.

Expect Rebuilt Junior Hi Ready For School Term

Contractor Says Workmen Well Into Finishing Stage

The rebuilt old section of the Harrisburg Junior high school likely will be ready for the opening of school Sept. 4—the day after Labor Day.

Pat Sullivan of Midland Construction Co., major contractor on the project, said Friday that his workmen were well into the finishing stage, and that the other contractors — Heister's and Le-Tempt Plumbing of Harrisburg and Sutton Electric of Eldorado were keeping pace.

The old building was practically demolished by fire January 1, 1955, a few days after the new building to the north had just been accepted.

All walls, windows and roof of the new project have been completed, the plasterers have only a few days' more work to do, acoustical tile is being placed on ceilings, floor of the girls' physical education room is near completion and painters will return in force Monday.

A large amount of work remains to be done, but barring emergencies, the building will be ready, Mr. Sullivan said. He said the work program is being directed especially to class rooms, and if anything is not completed, it will be in the auditorium.

Russell Malan, District 43 superintendent, said plans for reopening of school are about complete. The situation of vocal music instructor is the only one not filled.

Other buildings in the system have been undergoing their routine cleaning and painting. At an adjourned session of the school board, decision will be made Monday whether to tear out the partition in the Horace Mann assembly, which has been used under the program whereby Junior high students used Horace Mann part time.

It would be more convenient for this to be done before school reopens, but action has been held in abeyance pending more definite indications as to availability of the Junior high facilities.

OIL REPORT:

2 Producers in Tate Township

Taken from the Robertson Tri-State Oil Report

Big oil news in Saline county this week came from Tate township, where C. E. Brehm of Mt. Vernon brought in one well with initial production of 900 barrels a day, another 500 a day, both on flow.

They were the G. R. Johnson No. 1, SW NE SE, 19-7s-5e, which came in at 900 barrels per day on flow after fracture of the Aux Vases; and the Verl Springs No. 2, NW SE SE, 19-7s-5e, which made an oil well in the Aux Vases with initial production of 500 barrels a day on flow. Brehm is drilling the Johnson No. 2 and the Springs No. 4, but there is no information on these operations.

One other producers was reported. Lobree's Keown-Bona-Baker et al No. 1, NW NE NW, 22-8s-5e (Brushy), which had initial production of 84 barrels of oil per day on pump from the Aux Vases.

Dry and abandoned were: V. R. Gallagher's Garner No. 1, SW NE SE, 35-7s-7e (Rector), and Fletcher F. Farrar's L. C. Sauls No. 1, SE SE NE, 13-8s-7e (Eldorado).

Temporarily abandoned was Lauderdale's L. C. Naugle Community No. 1, 210 feet north and 303 feet east of the SW NE NW, 28-8s-5e (Brushy).

WSIL Petition Denied by FCC

WASHINGTON, July 21 — The Federal Communications commission has denied a petition by the Turner-Farrar association, operators of WSIL-TV, Harrisburg, Ill., for a VHF channel.

The Harrisburg association petitioned the FCC to operate on Channel 13 (VHF) instead of Channel 22 (UHF). It petitioned that the FCC delete Channel 13 from Bowling Green, Ky., and substitute that channel for Channel 22 at Harrisburg.

Since the Harrisburg petition was filed, two applications have been filed for Channel 13 in Bowling Green.

Iowa Girl New Miss Universe; Dispute Flares

LONG BEACH, Calif. — Carol Morris, shapely daughter of an Iowa minister, won the Miss Universe title early today and touched off a controversy that marred the contest.

The judges' selection was announced a few minutes after midnight and smouldering resentment of rejected Latin America contestants flared into open revolt.

All of the Latin American beauties were eliminated earlier from the five girl semifinals, causing complaints that the judges were biased in favor of North American and European types.

They bore no personal grudge against the statuesque 20-year-old daughter of an Ottumwa, Iowa, minister but they thought Latin Americans had been slighted because none from their ranks had won the contest in its five-year history.

Some of the Europeans sided with the Latin Americans.

There were happy congratulations for the Drake University coed from her runners-up, Miss Germany, Marina Orschel, 19; Miss Sweden, Ingrid Goude, 19; Miss England, Iris Waller, 21; and Miss Italy, Rosanna Galli, 21, who finished in that order in the finals.

But in the wings after the contest was over, much grumbling came from the Latin Americans. Maria Cardoso, Miss Brazil, declared:

"We all are tremendously disappointed. I am certain that among the Latin Americans among the 15 semi-finalists there was ample material for the final five."

The winner has dark brown hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. She is five-feet, seven-inches tall, weighs 129 pounds and measures 36-25-36.

Miss Morris, a Drake University swimming champion, fainted after being declared the winner, but she later came on stage to receive her scepter, crown and satin cape amid the cheering of the 4,000 spectators at Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

Her mother and father, the Rev. Laverne Morris and his wife, Gertrude, were in the audience.

Cloudbursts Cause Flash Floods In Two States; Three Missing

By United Press

Cloudbursts sent flash floods sweeping down streams in Nevada and Pennsylvania Friday, washing three persons to possible death near Reno, Nev.

Organized parties were still searching for the missing trio, Mrs. Matt Wachowicz and two of her children, aged 3 and 5, early today. Her husband and 10-year-old son survived when their auto was carried into a ravine by a four-foot wall of water.

Four passengers in two other cars pushed off the road by the sudden flood were treated for minor injuries and shock. Authorities reported that water in the Galena Creek dropped back to its normal level a few hours after the flood.

Flood waters reached Reno, causing damages estimated at thousands of dollars. However, no injuries were reported in the city.

In Pennsylvania, overflowing creeks flooded homes and covered autos at Donelson's Crossroads. The rapidly deepening water on streets stalled autos and forced

Nation Digs Out from Make-Believe Devastation Under Civil Rule Plan

EMERGENCY PRESS HEADQUARTERS, Operation Alert — The nation dug out from make-believe devastation today with Civil Defense Chief Val Peterson directing recovery under vast new powers authorized by President Eisenhower.

The new plan—emphasizing civil rather than military rule—is being tested in "Operation Alert 1956" for possible adoption as U. S. emergency policy in the event of an actual attack. Prior plans had hinged on declaration of martial law.

Assistant White House Press Secretary Murray Snyder called a news conference to discuss progress of the operation. Peterson also called one later to give newsmen their first top-command briefing on progress of the six-day exercise.

News of the operation is channeled through newsmen posted at secret press center 100 miles from Washington.

Imaginary air and sea raids Friday laid waste nearly to 75 points in the U. S. proper and its territories — many more than could probably be hit by any enemy force in a single day. The nation's largest cities and many smaller towns were reduced to rubble by hypothetical nuclear bombs and guided missiles.

Some elements of the mock emergency operation made a faltering start because of a real weather emergency. Thunderstorms knocked out emergency communications circuits and fog stymied the airlifting of key federal officials to their secret relocation headquarters outside of Washington.

Mr. Eisenhower authorized test runs of the emergency orders. The first declared an "unlimited national emergency and state of war." The second proclaimed a "civil defense emergency."

Eisenhower Flies Non-Stop to Panama for Historic Conference

PANAMA CITY, Panama — President Eisenhower flew non-stop from Washington today for an historic conference with other American chiefs of state in his most arduous physical undertaking since his operation.

The President's special plane, the Columbine III, reached Panama City at 6:52 a. m. CST. The two-day conference, largest of its kind in the Americas, was scheduled to open shortly after Mr. Eisenhower's arrival.

It originally had been scheduled for June 24-25 but was postponed when the President was operated on last June 9.

Mrs. Walter Siebman Dies at Home of Son Near Ridgway

Funeral Services at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph church in Ridgway

Son Near Ridgway

Mrs. Reta Siebman, 63, wife of the late Walter Siebman, died at the home of her son, Harry Siebman, near Ridgway following an illness of six months.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Mary Seten and the late William Seten of Sulphur Springs.

She also leaves another son, Glen of Fort Wayne, Ind.; two grandchildren, Jack and Anita Siebman, and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Maude Smith, Sumner, Wash.; Nelle Seten, Sulphur Springs; Vernon Seten, Cottage Grove, Ralph Seten, Mahomet, Ill.; Frank Seten, Wichita, Kansas; Raymond and Wayne Seten, Sulphur Springs.

The body lies in state at the Smith and Edwards funeral home at Ridgway. Services will be held Monday at 9 a. m. at St. Joseph church in Ridgway.

Dulles, who left Washington about an hour ahead of Mr. Eisenhower, arrived here at 6:30 a. m.

President's Trip Influential

U. S. diplomats said the fact that the President decided to make the long trip southward is influencing a much heavier participation in the Panama conference than previously expected.

When Mr. Eisenhower first decided to come to Panama, only about 12 other American presidents were expected to join him in the informal conference. Now the chief executives of at least 19 other countries are expected to be on hand for today's opening session. Only Honduras and Colombia will not be represented.

The conference is an informal gathering of presidents and president-elects to commemorate the 130th anniversary of Simon Bolivar's "Congress of Panama."

No Set Agenda

There is no set agenda for the meeting. The only definite "business" is the signing of the "Declaration of Panama," reaffirming continental solidarity.

The declaration, which has been in preparation for weeks, will be signed Sunday. Following the signing ceremonies, each of the presidents is expected to speak.

Auto Crashes Through Wall, Drops 3 Stories

CHICAGO — A car crashed through the wall of a downtown garage and dropped to the sidewalk three stories below, killing one person.

Four persons were injured including the garage attendant who was attempting to park the car. He told police the car's acceleration stuck and he was unable to halt the vehicle.

Screaming pedestrians fled for cover when the auto suddenly burst through the wall, sending bricks and mortar cascading across the sidewalk and into the street.

The dead man was identified as Harold J. Wolf, 46, a Michigan City, Mich., tombstone manufacturer.

The garage attendant, Isaiah Hudson, 23, was parking a Cadillac owned by Rudolph Schneider of Three Oaks, Mich., and Miami, Fla. He said he had driven the vehicle up a ramp and was heading it into a parking place when "the gas pedal stuck."

"The car kept going faster and faster, and I couldn't stop it," he said.

The auto landed on its grill and bounced onto a passing station wagon. Hudson suffered cuts and bruises while the driver of the station wagon was unhurt.

Files Complaints Against Epping, Ex-Banker Hintz

Ex-Auditor Makes Surprise Appearance Before Federal Jury

CHICAGO — Orville E. Hodge, former state auditor charged with embezzling $650,000 from the state, arrived at Chicago early today and immediately went before a federal grand jury.

Hodge made his surprise appearance soon after George P. Coutrakon, state's attorney at Springfield, formally charged the former auditor with embezzlement.

Coutrakon also swore out complaints against Edward A. Epping, a Hodge aide, and Edward A. Hintz, former president of the Southmoor Bank and Trust Co., Chicago, charging them with conspiracy to defraud the state.

Hodge arrived at the federal court house with Assistant U. S. District Attorney Frank McGarr, one of his attorneys, William F. Fuiten of Springfield, and the U. S. marshal.

The complaint against Hodge charged that he "did embezzle from the State of Illinois $650,000" between May 19, 1955 and July 16, 1956.

Coutrakon said the sum represented the total face value of 46 state checks which have come under scrutiny in the investigation of Hodge's operation of the auditor's office.

The 46 checks were made out to various firms and individuals. Many of them say they never saw the checks or received any of the money from them.

Coutrakon worked with a staff of five other lawyers in the Illinois Supreme Court Building Friday night, drafting 46 indictments against Hodge. He said he will present these to a grand jury Monday.

The prosecutor said the embezzlement complaint against Hodge covers the period from May 19, 1955, the date of the first of the 46 checks until Hodge resigned as auditor under fire July 16.

Huge Conspiracy

The other complaint charged that Hintz and Epping "did conspire to defraud the State of Illinois of thousands of dollars, the exact amount of which is unknown."

The state's attorney went to work on the indictments after quizzing Hodge in a three-hour "tell-all" session.

When the meeting broke up, Coutrakon told reporters, "This is a huge conspiracy—I can see that now. There is a lot of money involved."

Coutrakon said he had learned of four new "questionable checks" amounting to $101,708. Earlier, Attorney General Latham Castle estimated checks worth $800,000 were involved in the scandal. Coutrakon's report boosted the total to $901,708.

"I'm sure there are a lot more warrants missing than the 47 already involved," Coutrakon said. If true, this would push the sum over the $1 million level.

Wind Up Construction On Harco Road Stretch

The Producers Mining Co. of Marion is winding up its construction of the two and a half mile stretch of the Harco road that will provide an eight-mile blacktop thoroughfare between Route 13 and Route 34. The remaining part of the road has been improved in other projects.

Although the road is not quite completed, the road has been opened to traffic.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

If God be for us, who can be against us? Romans 8:31.
God likes to be called on in sincerity. A casual connection is not enough. We must be God's

Nearly Two Million Acres in Soil Bank Plan

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Agriculture Department reports farmers have agreed to deposit nearly two million acres of surplus-producing crop land in the government new soil bank.

The department said this covers payments to farmers under these agreements will total more than $7 million dollars.

A total of $1,200,000,000 was authorized by Congress for the soil bank this year.

The "preliminary and incomplete" report of soil bank participation is the first issued since farmers began signing up late last month. Acting Secretary of Agriculture True D. Morse said it indicates "widespread interest" in the program.

The agreements were signed under the acreage reserve section in which farmers may earn government payments for producing less than their allotments of corn, wheat, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

This Week at DIXON SPRINGS

University of Illinois Experiment Station

(A round-up of the week's work, activities, and observations at the University of Illinois Dixon Springs Experiment Station near Robbs in southern Illinois, prepared by the Station's staff.)

Pastures Growing Short

A wet spring and a dry June are recognized by wheat growers as excellent weather for high wheat and small-grain yields. We have had that situation, and small-grain yields have been unusually good. But what has been good for grain yields has been bad for pasture production.

On the Dixon Springs Station, George Cmarik, cattle researcher, has been ferreting out pastures that will continue to produce acceptable beef gains. Bob Webb, Station Superintendent, says that late in the planting season, enrollment is expected to be much lower than the goals established for 1957 and later years, Morse said.

we have plenty of pasture of a sort. These are grass pastures, which would maintain dry animals very well but are not suited for milking cows with calves.

Temporary Pastures

We suspect that many farmers are facing the same problem. It's not new. Many of us use Sudan grass to furnish continued forage for the season. Lespedeza is another ace in the hole that southern Illinois farmers have. Stubble pasture also helps out. Even so, on the well-stocked farm the comparatively light-yielding lespedeza and stubble pastures just don't seem to go around.

Start Feeding

Here is one way the beef raiser or the sheep man may go to alleviate a short pasture situation:

The cattleman can put yearling or two-year-old steers on a full grain feed either in drylot or on pasture and aim for a fall or early winter market.

Sheep producers can make their present pastures go further by weaning the lambs and putting them on grain feed in drylot. The dry ewes will get along very well on a pure pasture or a grass pasture until close to the breeding season.

Cow and Calf Programs Fits, But—

Cow and calf programs are natural for much of the area in southern Illinois. Considering the kind of land and the type of crops, a beef cow herd really fits in.
Without the cow herd much of the forage would never reach the market or it would be poorly used.
But a cow and calf business alone lacks flexibility. For example, if a farmer is stocking with cows and calves alone to completely use his pastures and pastures, there are dry periods when he will be overstocked. His choice then is to sell or feed. Of what value is a half-grown, unweaned calf on the market? Forced sale usually means a sacrifice. Most of us know that feeding a beef cow isn't a paying operation.

Plan A Flexible Program

We can take a lesson in flexibility from ranchers and farmers who carry yearling and even two-year-old cattle in addition to the cow herd. These cattle always have a market value and if not sold as feeders may be grain fed for a profitable return. They furnish the give-and-take in a ranch or stock farm business. They assure nearly complete pasture use without risk of overstocking or risk of sacrifice sale.

General Rains Aid Illinois Corn, Soybean Growth

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Fairly general rains across the state in the last week helped the state corn crop shoot up another foot to an average height of six feet, the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service said today.

The rains were desirable for corn and soybean growth, but "plagued many farmers anxious to harvest small grain and cure hay," the service said.

The corn crop now averages some 68 inches, 15 inches taller than at the same time last year, and about 40 percent of the corn has tasselled, compared with 23 percent a year ago.

The crop service said although the week's rains improved the soil moisture situation, "Many areas of the state are still below normal on subsurface moisture."

About 26 percent of the service's correspondents reported a moisture shortage, 72 percent ample moisture, and 2 percent surplus.

About 80 percent of the soybean crop has started to bloom, compared with only 30 percent at this time last year, the service said.
Pods are appearing in about one-fifth of the bean fields.

A box car shortage, together with the rains, delayed harvesting of a "bumper crop" of wheat, the service said.

4-H News

The Raleigh 4-H Sewing club met Thursday at the home of Mrs.
Esther Owens.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Sue Reid, who led the girls in saying "The Lord's Prayer" in unison.

After the business meeting the girls played games and sewed on their projects they are taking to the fair.

Delicious refreshments were served to Darlene Goodson, Sue Reid, Pamela Jamerson, Judy Reid, Sharon Miller, Judy Johnson, Mrs. Esther Owens and Mrs.
Owens' mother-in-law.

600,000 4-Hers Hunt Hazards

SAFETY is an important crop that's being harvested on the farms and in the homes of 600,000 4-H Club members taking part in the 1956 National 4-H Safety Program.

Through 4-H projects and activities, club members in all 48 states are correcting hazards which are responsible for an annual toll of 14,000 lives and 1,200,000 serious injuries among farm residents, and an economic loss estimated to be a billion-and-a-half dollars.

4-Hers conduct surveys to locate hazards, and then correct unsafe conditions. They present demonstrations on a wide variety of topics pertaining to farm, home and highway safety, and members give talks over radio and television and before group meetings. In addition, club members build booths and displays for exhibiting at fairs and in store windows.

Realizing that motor vehicle accidents are responsible for over 40 percent of all accidental deaths among farm people, 4-Hers are increasing their participation in motor vehicle safety.

In recognition of the outstanding safety work done by 4-H members, General Motors is again providing incentives in the 1956 National 4-H Safety Award Program. Included in the awards offered are four gold-filled medals for winners in each county; an all-expenses trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for the state winner; and $300 college scholarship for the eight national winners. Certificates and plaques are also provided for clubs reporting outstanding safety programs on county and state levels.

The 4-H Safety Program is conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service, and the awards arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Complete information on the program is available from county Extension offices.

SIU Country Column

By Albert Meyer

Perhaps the garden is at the height of production just now. Most gardeners in southern Illinois should have an abundance of fresh produce this season because moisture and temperature conditions have been favorable for plant growth.

However, by this time of the year early plantings of radishes have gone to seed and the leaf lettuce is following suit, or has become so tough and bitter due to hot weather that it has lost much of its taste appeal. Green garden peas probably have been harvested and the vines removed.
Before long other spring-sown crops will be past their production peak.

Persons who want fall garden crops should begin formulating plans—especially if it appears that present crops will not hold on for the season. Few crops do so satisfactorily. Lima beans, green peppers, and some varieties of tomatoes will continue to bear until fall with satisfactory weather conditions. Most crops must be re-seeded to obtain fall production.

In planning for the fall garden, consider the average time required by each kind of vegetable for maturing and count back from the average date for the first killing frost. This frost kill date varies from October 15 in the north half of Southern Illinois to October 20-25 in the extreme part.

It is also a good idea to allow a little extra time for maturing for fall grown vegetables because daily hours of sunshine will be less than in spring, slowing down the speed of growth. Some vegetables thrive better in cool weather than others.

William T. Andrew, vegetable specialist at Southern Illinois University, says that another point to keep in mind is that the soil usually is much drier at this time of the year than when the spring garden crops are planted. That will mean planting seeds deeper.
Depth of seeding depends upon the amount of moisture present at the time. Seed must have moisture to germinate and if this isn't present in the top inch or two of soil, the seed must be placed deeper.

If gardening is on a small scale and the soil has dried greatly, it is possible to hurry along germination by flooding the furrow with water before dropping the seed.
Some gardeners have found it good practice to place an old board or strip of tar paper over the row after the seed has been covered to keep the soil from drying out rapidly or crusting. If this technique is used the gardener must watch carefully so that the covering will be removed as soon as the seedlings reach the surface.

Now a few suggestions from Andrew on crops for the fall garden.
Because radishes grow to usable size in about 25 days and thrive under cool fall conditions, they may be planted at several different dates in order to have a continuous supply.

Turnips, spinach, leaf lettuce and mustard mature in 45 to 50 days. These may be sown satisfactorily between August 1 and 20.
Green beans usually are grown as a fall garden or commercial crop in Southern Illinois and sometimes are of better quality than the crop

Mulching corn plots at the Dixon Springs Experiment Station last summer added 14 bushels an acre in yield over conventional-planted corn yields.

"Hundred Days"
In French history, the "Hundred Days" was the term of Napoleon's second reign as emperor, climaxed by the battle of Waterloo.

Mrs. Grover Estes
Hostess to Loyal Workers
Ladies' Bible Class

The Loyal Workers Ladies' Bible class of Buena Vista met with Mrs. Grover Estes, Thursday for a potluck and regular business session.

After the noon meal, Mrs. Orpha Wagner presided at the meeting for the president, Mrs. Mary Shell. Prayer was led by Mrs.
Estes and concluded by Mrs. Ethel Blue, followed by the song
"Heavenly Sunlight." Mrs. Tess Rogers gave the devotional lesson, taken from the 3rd chapter of St. Matthew. A quartet, consisting of Mrs. Laura Suver, Mrs.
Wagner, Mrs. Blue and Mrs.
Lula Hughes, sang "I Surrender All."

The birthday of Mrs. Lois Buchanan was remembered by gifts from all the members and Mrs.
Tess Rogers read an original poem written by herself in honor of Mrs. Buchanan.

The meeting was closed with everyone holding hands and repeating the Lord's Prayer in uni-

Body Discovered In River is Not Kidnaped Baby

NEW YORK (AP) — Discovery of a baby's body in the Hudson River Friday led police to first believe it might be that of kidnaped Peter Weinberger.

Medical examination definitely determined, however, that it was the body of a new-born infant. Peter was 32 days old when he was kidnaped 16 days ago.

The announcement ended three hours of additional anxiety for Peter's mother, Mrs. Betty Weinberger, and hectic police activity.

Police said the body had fitted the general description of Peter as to size, weight and eye coloring.
When informed that a body had been found, Mrs. Weinberger at her home in Westbury, Long Island, clung to her hope that it was not Peter and her baby would be found alive.

"It's not my baby," she insisted without viewing the body.

Private Planes Collide; 4 Killed

GRANITE CITY, Ill. (AP)—Four persons were killed late Friday when two private planes collided in flight and crashed near Granite City.

State police identified the occupants of a Stinson as Albert Johnson, of St. Louis County, and a woman believed to be his wife. The occupants of the other plane, a Cessna, were identified as Arthur J. Brauer Jr. of St. Louis and his daughter, Becky, 15.

The planes collided about 150 feet over Lakeside Airport, two miles north of here, shortly after taking off.

Soviets Hint Leaders Anxious For Invite to U. S.

LONDON (AP) — Soviet diplomats hinted strongly today that Moscow is particularly anxious for an invitation to Washington for Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S.
Khrushchev.

The Soviet leaders want to visit the United States sometime next year, after the presidential elections, according to the Soviet hints being dropped in private conversations and at official receptions.

Alternatively, Russia would like the newly-elected U. S. President to come to Russia next year.

Behind the hints are strong indications of the Soviet desire for face-to-face talks between the new Kremlin leaders and the president of the United States.

Nun Saves Four

LODI, Italy (AP) — A Catholic nun jumped into the swirling waters of the Po River Friday and rescued four of five little girls who fell into the river when a section of the bank collapsed. Sister Maria Lulli managed to drag four of the girls to safety despite the impediment of her long black robe, but the fifth was swept away by the current and drowned.

The couple is well known in Harrisburg, where Mrs. Lattimer was always active in club, social and political circles. Mr. Mc-Clure was employed by the Peabody Coal Co., before accepting his present position at the Chicago State hospital. Both are employed there as psychiatric aides. After a short wedding trip the couple returned to Chicago, where they will make their home.

Sgt. Robert C. Mayberry, U. S.
Army Infantry man, arrived in Harrisburg Friday with his wife, a former Japanese girl, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mayberry going to Germany in August to remain for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins of Kankakee are visiting over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Coy C. Brown. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Collins, former residents of Galatia.

Mother of Nine Children And Her 10-Year-Old Daughter Drown

ROBBINS, N. C. — A mother of nine children and her 10-year-old daughter drowned near here Friday when a flash flood tumbled their car off a bridge into a rain-swollen creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Link and three of their children were off to a weekend at the beach when the tragedy occurred.

Link and his sons, Wayne, 12, and Monty, 15, managed to get out of the open windows and grabbed hold of tree branches that served as lifelines in the watery darkness.

The creek was turned into a raging current by nearly five inches of rain that fell in sheets from 2 p. m. to midnight on this central North Carolina community.

Label Death of Mr. Carmel Man an Accident

MC LEANSBORO, Ill. — A coroner's jury has called the death of Leonard Hartling Sr., 27, Mount Carmel, an accident.

Hartling, a construction worker, was burned Wednesday morning when gasoline spilled on him while he was filling a tank on a ditch-digging machine. A spark from an undetermined source ignited his clothing. He died 11 hours later.

Li'l Abner Again Winner of Survey

For the second straight year Al Capp's "Li'l Abner" won out as the favorite comic strip of college and university men throughout the country in the fourth annual reader survey conducted by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The kids in the grandstand are yelling, "Strike him out!" and our young pitcher is going to do exactly that. This is his day for a shut-out game... his day to win.

He's feeling pretty good about it, and who's to blame him? But what if things had gone the other way? What if some other boy had been warming up in the bullpen, about to have taken his place? But he is a well-balanced youngster, and he would have taken that in stride, too.

He has learned about being a good sport, about regard for his fellow men, and about many other equally important things in Church. For, like thousands of other American youngsters, the Church already plays an important part in his life. That is one reason why his parents have faith in the fact that he will grow up to be a pretty fine man.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'We Belong To A Great Company'

Hebrews 11:32; 12:2
GOLDEN TEXT: "Wherefore seeing we are also compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses; let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." (Hebrews 12:1)

INTRODUCTION — We like to be on the side of success. We want our team to win. We want our school to win. We want our town and our government and our army to win.

There is only one organization in this world that is assured of absolute victory. Is it home? No! Is it our government? No! What is it? It is the church of the living God. Even "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

What a blessed privilege to know that you can belong to a company that absolutely knows that the crown of victory awaits each member when the battle is over. The crown of victory is already prepared and waiting every believer in Christ.

I FAITH IN GOD EQUALS VICTORY (Heb. 11:32-38)

God looks on the inward parts of man. We look at outward appearances. If the rich man, whom Jesus told about, who died and went to hell, had lived in our neighborhood, we would have thought him successful. Many folks would have thought it wonderful if their daughter could have married him.

It is quite possible for you, my friend, to be successful in the eyes of people and to be a complete failure in the sight of God. Your reputation is what others think you are, and your character is what you and God know you are.

Notice here that this group of faithful (men and women) turned the world upside down for Christ for a while. What are you doing for God today?

II THE BETTER THING (Heb. 11:39-40)

Read the eleventh chapter of Hebrews. Note the faith of those people who loved God. Could there be any better thing? That remember; those men and women lived before Christ came to earth and paid the sacrifice for sin. They looked forward to the time when the Messiah would come. We look back, in faith, to the time He did come. He died for you and for me. In so doing He took our place in death for sin. Therefore, by faith in him, he becomes our Saviour.

There are some fine fraternal orders, such as the Masons, Odd Fellows, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions. These and other such groups do much good and charitable work. We have seen people thrill at being admitted into one of these orders.

How much greater the privilege of being "born again" and thus becoming a member of the greatest fellowship of all — the church. All these other organizations shall one day be destroyed and forgotten, because they are man made. The church shall last forever, because it was founded by God.

III VICTORY WON (Heb. 12:1-2)

"We are compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses." Yes, friend, we are being watched by unseen eyes. Those gone on before are watching us. The angels are watching us. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are watching us. Day and night we are "compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses."

Besides all these, the people who are yet living are watching us. Your life is either counting for good or bad. You cannot be neutral. You are either dragging people down by your influence, or you are lifting them up to a higher plane of living. Which is it?

CONCLUSION — Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of God." (Heb. 12:2). Glorious it is to know that through faith in him, we too, shall reign victoriously with him forever!
